Total number of delegates 1,088; necessary for choice 728.

Governor Marshall of Indiana received thirty votes from the beginning of the balloting and Bryan and Kern were given an occasional vote or two. Governor Foss of Massachusetts received forty-three votes on the last few ballots.

Baltimore, July 1.—After two days of wearisome balloting, during which the roll of states was called twenty-six times, the Democratic national convention was still without a standard bearer.

The convention was seemingly in a state of hopeless deadlock. No one candidate was enjoying a commanding lead. The morning session, which began at 10 o'clock, was a complete failure.

May 31, 1891. He was re-elected that city and graduated from the St. Paul high school. He was a member of the first class of the law school of the University of Minnesota, and was elected to the law school of the University of Wisconsin, where he was a member of the first class.

For ten hours the delegates had battled in a blazing heat which seemed well nigh unbearable. An attempt to force a dinner adjournment failed. The Clark men wanted it to rally their weakening ranks. The Wilson men fought and prevented it because they believed if they could hold the convention together a few hours the result they so anxiously awaited would come. Their expectations were fruitless. The Clark ranks were giving steadily before the onslaught of the opposition, but were still holding on desperately. The Wilson gain was in ones and twos and threes. At last all of the leaders agreed that there was no hope of immediate settlement. A recess over Sunday was the logical conclusion and the representatives of every candidate who was being voted on agreed to it.

The twenty-sixth ballot showed the strength of the candidates as follows: Clark 463%, Wilson 407%, Underwood 112%, Harmon 29, Marshall 30, Foss 43, not voting 1%.

Clark Victory on Tenth.

Clark had entered the contest with a total vote of 440%, as against 324 for Wilson. There was little change in the totals for the speaker until his managers made their desperate effort to put him across on the tenth ballot, when they swung New York into line for him. His high water mark was 556, and it was then that his sponsors insisted that it was all over but the shouting. They had told Murphy of Tammany Hall that there would be an immediate break in the Harmon and the Underwood strength that would persuade the "doubting Thomases," but their guess was wrong.

With the eleventh ballot the Clark men began to wane. Wilson, however, gained consistently but slowly. His only big gain was late today when the Kansas delegation abandoned Clark for him. Otherwise his increases came from several delegates who were impressed either by his managers or with the belief that he really was the man of the hour.

But despite the optimistic declarations of the Wilson men and the early progress that his boom had made through the various roll calls there was a general belief among the more experienced politicians that the New Jersey executive would never receive the two-thirds vote needed to nominate him. The open exposure of his issues by Bryan admittedly hurt him among the big Eastern delegations. Murphy, it was asserted, would never let New York vote for him and there were other state delegations which were supposed to resent the action of the Nebraskan in trying to force their hands and show them up in a bad light if they failed to follow where he led.

Bryan in Dramatic Outburst.

The afternoon session was marked by another dramatic outburst from Mr. Bryan. Claiming the privilege of explaining why he and more than a dozen other delegates from Nebraska were going to switch their votes from Clark to Wilson the former candidate held the floor for nearly an hour and was the center of a storm which swept the hall in changing waves of protest and approbation. He declared that so long as Champ Clark continued to accept the support of "Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall" he would not vote for him.

An Oklahoma delegate, following Bryan, asked to explain his change of vote from Wilson to Clark.

"My name is Giddings of Opulen, Okla. I have always followed the lead of the Nebraskan, but I do not like to sit here and hear aspersions on my fellow Democrats. I think it is time to call a halt on personalities and stand on principles."

Mr. Giddings defended his record as a Democrat and asked if Mr. Bryan could do the same.

"I ask this convention," concluded the Oklahoman, "to turn upon Mr. Bryan a paraphrase of a statement of his own, 'Thou shalt not press down upon the brow of Democracy a crown.'" Here a yell interrupted. The speaker tried to finish, but the uproar drowned his voice.

"You shalt not press down upon the brow of Democracy a thorny crown of anarchy. You shall not crucify us upon a cross of selfishness," shouted Giddings, and he left the platform.

UNDERWOOD MAY BE THE NOMINEE

Alabama Candidate Is Talked of as Compromise.

SITUATION IS VERY COMPLEX

Belief Grows Neither Clark or Wilson Can Win.

Baltimore, July 1.—The situation as seen by leaders not associated intimately in the management of any of the campaigns seemed to be about as follows:

Clark having failed of nomination for seventeen ballots, after receiving a majority vote, probably had reached the crest of his strength.

Wilson, although climbing steadily, apparently was bitterly opposed by delegates who resented the general impression that Colonel Bryan had the veto power, although he lacked the votes necessary to control the nomination.

These delegates believed that the New Jersey governor would continue to gain even to the point where he had a majority, but that he could not break down the Clark strength, which was said to be determined that Bryan should not win through a combination of any kind.

Should Clark and Wilson fail on the next two or three ballots it was predicted that there would be a turn to Representative Underwood, who had held his nominal vote from first to last. Underwood forces were watching for just such a contingency and claimed to be prepared to take full advantage of it.

Whether the Alabama candidate could win or not was the subject of much speculation, but outside of the delegates who had voted for him on twenty-six ballots there did not appear to be much enthusiasm.

Genuine attempts at compromise are likely to be made if Wilson and Underwood should follow Clark upon a high wave of votes and still fail to get the necessary two-thirds, but it was not expected that any of the "dark horse" candidates will stand much show until the three leaders in turn have tried and failed.

On the face of the last ballot cast Governor Wilson seemed to have a decided advantage over other candidates, having mounted steadily to 407% votes from 324 on the first ballot. His campaign managers, consequently, are doing their utmost to steer clear of the controversy between Clark and Bryan. They said that Wilson ought not to be made a party to such a quarrel.

Closes Year With Surplus.

Washington, July 1.—The federal government closed the fiscal year with a surplus of $22,000,000, according to estimates. This amount far exceeds the most sanguine expectations of Secretary MacVeagh, who months ago estimated that the surplus would be $10,000,000.

COMMONER ANSWERS CLARK STATEMENT

Nebraskan Says Missourian Has Sinned by Omission.

Baltimore, July 1.—William J. Bryan replied to the statement of Speaker Champ Clark demanding that the Nebraskan prove or retract the general charge made in convention that the Clark forces had allied themselves with the great financial interests. In his statement Mr. Bryan said:

"I have received notice by publication only. The only criticism I have made against Mr. Clark is not that he has acted wrongfully, but that he has failed to act. I may overestimate the importance of the presidential office, but I have felt that an aspirant for that office ought to manage his own campaign and not allow people to do things for him without his direct or specific authority."

SUGGESTS NEW CANDIDATES

Bryan Mentions Several Men for Nomination.

Baltimore, July 1.—"I see no reason why we should not conclude the convention with the nomination of both a president and a vice president," said W. J. Bryan. "The friends of the various candidates have fought out their differences and in their loyalty to the men of their choice have consumed more time than is usually devoted to balloting. There is every reason why the progressives should get together and select a ticket."

He suggested that if the convention could not agree upon either Governor Wilson of New Jersey or Speaker Clark of Missouri an available man to head the ticket might be found in a list which he furnished comprising the names of Senator Kern of Indiana, Senator Elect Ollie James of Kentucky, Senator O'Gorman of New York, Senator Culberson of Texas and Senator Rayner of Maryland.

JUST TO MEET HIS FRIENDS

Clark Gives His Reasons for Going to Baltimore.

Washington, July 1.—"There is no change in the situation that I can see," said Speaker Clark. "It is exactly as it was when the convention adjourned. I went over to Baltimore to see some of my friends because it was more convenient for me to go than for them to come here to see me. I have no intention of going over to Baltimore again."

"My friends tell me that this is the time for me to stay in the race," said Representative Oscar Underwood of Alabama. "I am relying on their judgment. I can see no change in the situation at this time. I contemplate no action which will change the situation before the convention meets."

CONFIDENT CLARK WILL WIN

Parker and Murphy Predict Nomination of Speaker.

Baltimore, July 1.—"Adjournment of the convention until Monday will prove of great advantage to the candidacy of Speaker Clark," said Alton B. Parker.

"I still believe Clark will be nominated," continued Parker. "There is no foundation for rumors that the New York delegation's purpose is to abandon Clark for Underwood, Marshall, Gaynor or another. I cannot conceive it possible that the delegation would swing to Wilson."

"Those are my views," said Charles F. Murphy when Judge Parker's statement was repeated to him.

WAIT UNTIL THE COUNT OF VOTES

Political Wiseacres Chary of Predictions For November.

THE BIG BALTIMORE BOOMS.

Crowds Limited by Lack of Hotel Accommodations—Doorkeepers in Name Only—Women Working in Behalf of Suffrage and Charity—The Need of Leather Lungs.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

—[Special.]— There must be two parties, one radical and the other conservative. That is the way it has been with all governments where the people rule. Sometimes one party is radical and sometimes the other, but it always seems that the conservative party, recognizing that there are good things in the past, remains longest in control of the government.

The old Democratic party was conservative until a radical party arose more than fifty years ago and overthrew it. Then the radical Republican party became conservative and its rival the radical party. So it will be seen that the party which remains in power longest is that which is conservative. When the radical party gets in power it naturally tends to conservatism.

Guessing on November.

One can hear all sorts of guesses as to what will happen next November. There are more people in Baltimore with ideas about the next election than there were at Chicago. Curiously enough the general verdict after the Chicago convention was held was to the effect that neither man nominated there could be elected. A similar idea prevailed in Baltimore, but not among Democrats. There never was a Democratic convention from which partisanship did not go home convinced that the ticket stood a fair chance of winning.

Nonpartisan Judgment.

If there was such a thing as a nonpartisan judgment it would be that the result next November is in grave doubt. Men who came away from Chicago believing that it made little difference what the Democrats should do at Baltimore are now of the opinion that this will be a fight to the finish and that no one can say who will be the next president until the votes are counted next November.

But whatever happens it must be said that both the Chicago and the Baltimore conventions will go down to posterity as history makers.

Champ Clark's Managers.

Three former United States senators were the chief boomers for Champ Clark at the Democratic convention. They were Fred T. DuBois and Henry Helfield of Idaho and R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota. Both DuBois and Pettigrew were formerly Republicans, and Helfield was elected as a Populist to the senate. Pettigrew and DuBois were delegates to the Republican convention in 1896 and walked out of the convention when the gold plank was adopted. They have followed the fortunes of Mr. Bryan in every campaign since that time when the Nebraskan was a candidate. But they would not follow Bryan in his fight at Baltimore. They announced that they wanted Champ Clark and would do nothing to interfere with his chances.

Interviewing the Women.

Not only do more women attend national conventions than heretofore, but it has become a regular business for women to be interviewed as to whether they favor woman suffrage or are opposed to it. Another feature of the conventions was the "votes for women" distributors of literature in favor of their cause. Women also appeared before the committees on resolutions, but they could not convince the men who made the platforms that this was an auspicious time in which to put forward woman suffrage.

Charity Women at Work.

Women interested in various charities were prominent at both Baltimore and Chicago, selling articles for charity. Many of them at Baltimore tried to sell tickets for excursions and for concerts and entertainments to be given in Baltimore for charity. Most of the men said that Baltimore was getting all their money for hotels and meals and they had nothing for charity.

Disappearance of Crowds.

Probably there would have been a much larger attendance at the Democratic national convention if there had been more accommodations at Baltimore, but people could not get into the hotels, and there are not so many people in these days who are willing to take chances in all sorts of boarding houses for the purpose of simply making up a crowd. It was also noticed at the Republican convention that there were not as many people as formerly. Perhaps it is because crowds can no longer influence nominations.

Men of Voice Wanted.

With a convention hall holding 15,000 or 20,000 people it is useless for any man to attempt to talk unless he has a real forthright voice or one of those clarion toned voices that will penetrate every part of the hall. He must talk to the people as well as to the delegates. They want to know what is going on just as much as the men who are doing the voting.

First Thames Steamboats.

The first steamer on the Thames was the Marjory, in 1814. The Richmond followed her a year later.

GERMAN EMPRESS IS ILL

Physicians Advise Complete Withdrawal From All Functions.

Berlin, July 1.—It is learned from an authoritative source in spite of all attempts at denial that the health of the empress is causing anxiety to her physicians.

The empress returned recently from Bad Nauheim, where she had been taking the cure, in such condition that the attending physicians advised complete withdrawal from all representative functions.

HILL STEPS OUT AS CHAIRMAN OF BOARD

Completes Thirty-three Years of Active Railroad.

St. Paul, July 1.—The retirement of James J. Hill from his position as chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railway was officially announced from the office of the company. The resignation of Mr. Hill was presented to the board of directors June 7 and unofficial reports of the change were circulated at the time, but until now the statement with which Mr. Hill accompanies his resignation was not made public. As reported unofficially some weeks ago Louis W. Hill, who was recently succeeded by Carl R. Gray as president of the Great Northern, succeeds his father as chairman of the board of directors. James J. Hill will remain a member of the executive committee of the board.

With his retirement Mr. Hill completed thirty-three years of active railroad in the Northwest, beginning with his purchase of an interest in the St. Paul and Pacific, of which he was then made general manager, to the time of his resignation from the office which he has held for five years since he resigned the presidency of the Great Northern road. His statement to the board of directors gives a concise history of the development of the system, the purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific when the Dutch owners were trying to get rid of it, the extension of the main line to the coast and of branch lines into all parts of the Northwest, the purchase of interests in the Chicago, Burlington and the Colorado and Southern and a brief history of the financing of these projects. He merely touches upon the development of the country which has followed the development of the railroad system and in closing expresses the belief that the company is so safeguarded against the future that it can weather any ordinary storm and that its continued prosperity and usefulness is assured.

UNABLE TO GET TOGETHER

Mack Calls Conference of Candidates' Managers.

Baltimore, July 1.—National Chairman Mack called the representatives of the various candidates together with the purpose of ascertaining what candidates, if any, would withdraw and what dark horse possibly could be united on. It was understood that no representative of Governor Wilson's candidacy was present at this conference.

The deadlock was frankly discussed from every angle and the various leaders present disclosed their strategic positions with the plain purpose of convincing the others that his candidate was the logical choice.

THREE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Four Injured in Collision Between Auto and Train.

Kansas City, July 1.—Three persons were killed, four injured, one possibly fatally, near here when the automobile of G. W. Strope, a retired merchant, collided with a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul passenger train. Mrs. Strope is among the dead.

Others killed are Mrs. F. F. Ferguson, daughter of Strope, and her seven-year-old daughter Sharley.

CYCLONE RAZES CANADIAN TOWN

TO BUILD NO MORE LINES

See Line President Serves Notice on Wisconsin.

St. Paul, July 1.—President Edmund Pennington of the Soo Line, whose company operates extensive mileage in Wisconsin, in the strongest statement that has yet emanated from any railroad president in the Northwest regarding conditions in the commonwealth that lies east of Minnesota, said that his company would not build another mile of road in Wisconsin now, or at any future time, so far as could be foreseen.

Existing conditions in Wisconsin are such, he said, as to discourage capital seeking investment and he declared that as the result of a state of public mind due to the agitations of Wisconsin politicians that state is not progressing as are other Western states, but is going backward.

"DON'T FORGET TO REMIT"

Text of Many Messages Being Sent From Baltimore.

Baltimore, July 1.—Six days of the convention has just about exhausted the holiday spirit of the occasion and a general exodus of convention visitors, rooters, marching clubs and even delegates took place. The enthusiastic visitors who last Tuesday and Wednesday were having a "perfectly lovely" time disbursing their spending money and talking politics, settled down apathetically to the routine of the deadlock or hurried homeward with depleted purses.

Meager Details of Terrific Storm at Regina, Sask.

MANY KNOWN TO BE DEAD

Property Loss Will Run Far Into the Millions.

Winnipeg, July 1.—A terrific cyclone swept over Regina, Sask., leaving in its path many dead, hundreds of maimed bodies and a loss that will run far into the millions.

A message from J. R. Sutherland, superintendent of the government telephones, said that thirty girls were at work in the main Regina exchange, which was demolished; that three were killed instantly, that seven died after being taken from the ruins and that several are in a hospital in critical condition.

Further than this no information has come about fatalities, save the general statement that there were many of them. It will be impossible to estimate with any accuracy for several hours the number who perished or are imprisoned in damaged buildings. Early reports said there were perhaps 200 dead.

Physicians have been hurried to the scene from here. They are accompanied by nurses. Regina hospitals are filled with patients and temporary places for treatment of the wounded are being located. Every vehicle in the city, it was said, was put into use as ambulances.

Baltimore, July 1.—After two days of wearisome balloting, during which the roll of states was called twenty-six times, the Democratic national convention was still without a standard bearer.

The convention was seemingly in a state of hopeless deadlock. No one candidate was enjoying a commanding lead. The more the delegates

May 31, 1891. He was re-elected to the city and graduated from the St. Paul high school. He was elected to the first ballot taken, Clark, while still in the lead, had only 463% against 407% for Governor Wilson of New Jersey, his nearest rival.

For ten hours the delegates had battled in a blazing heat which seemed well nigh unbearable. An attempt to force a dinner adjournment failed. The Clark men wanted it to rally their weakening ranks. The Wilson men fought and prevented it because they believed if they could hold the convention together a few hours the result they so anxiously awaited would come. Their expectations were fruitless. The Clark ranks were giving steadily before the onslaught of the opposition, but were still holding on desperately. The Wilson gain was in ones and twos and threes. At last all of the leaders agreed that there was no hope of immediate settlement. A recess over Sunday was the logical conclusion and the representatives of every candidate who was being voted on agreed to it.

The twenty-sixth ballot showed the strength of the candidates as follows: Clark 463%, Wilson 407%, Underwood 112%, Harmon 29, Marshall 30, Foss 43, not voting 1%.

Clark Victory on Tenth.

Clark had entered the contest with a total vote of 440%, as against 324 for Wilson. There was little change in the totals for the speaker until his managers made their desperate effort to put him across on the tenth ballot, when they swung New York into line for him. His high water mark was 556, and it was then that his sponsors insisted that it was all over but the shouting. They had told Murphy of Tammany Hall that there would be an immediate break in the Harmon and the Underwood strength that would persuade the "doubting Thomases," but their guess was wrong.

With the eleventh ballot the Clark men began to wane. Wilson, however, gained consistently but slowly. His only big gain was late today when the Kansas delegation abandoned Clark for him. Otherwise his increases came from several delegates who were impressed either by his managers or with the belief that he really was the man of the hour.

But despite the optimistic declaration of the Wilson men and the healthy progress that his boom had made through the various roll calls there was a general belief among the more experienced politicians that the New Jersey executive would never receive the two-thirds vote needed to nominate him. The open espousal of his cause by Bryan admittedly hurt among the big Eastern delegations. Murphy, it was asserted, would never let New York vote for him and there were other state delegations which were supposed to resent the action of the Nebraska in trying to force their hands and show them up in a bad light if they failed to follow where he led.

Bryan in Dramatic Outburst.

The afternoon session was marked by another dramatic outburst from Mr. Bryan. Claiming the privilege of explaining why he and more than a dozen other delegates from Nebraska were going to switch their votes from Clark to Wilson the former candidate held the floor for nearly an hour and was the center of a storm which swept the hall in changing waves of protest and approbation. He declared that so long as Champ Clark continued to accept the support of "Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall" he would not vote for him.

An Oklahoma delegate, following Bryan, asked to explain his change of vote from Wilson to Clark.

"My name is Giddings of Opeuen, Okla. I have always followed the lead of the Nebraska, but I do not like to sit here and hear aspersions on my fellow Democrats. I think it is time to call a halt on personalities and stand on principles."

Mr. Giddings defended his record as a Democrat and asked if Mr. Bryan could do the same.

"I ask this convention," concluded the Oklahoman, "to turn upon Mr. Bryan a paraphrase of a statement of his own. 'Thou shalt not press down upon the brow of Democracy a crown.' Here a yell interrupted. The speaker tried to finish, but the uproar drowned his voice.

"You shalt not press down upon the brow of Democracy a thorny crown of anarchy. You shalt not crucify us upon a cross of selfishness," shouted Giddings, and he left the platform.

UNDERWOOD MAY BE THE NOMINEE

Alabama Candidate Is Talked of as Compromise.

SITUATION IS VERY COMPLEX

Belief Grows Neither Clark or Wilson Can Win.

Baltimore, July 1.—The situation as seen by leaders not associated intimately in the management of any of the campaigns seemed to be about as follows:

Clark having failed of nomination for seventeen ballots, after receiving a majority vote, probably had reached the crest of his strength.

Wilson, although climbing steadily, apparently was bitterly opposed by delegates who resented the general impression that Colonel Bryan had the vote power, although he lacked the votes necessary to control the nomination.

These delegates believed that the New Jersey governor would continue to gain even to the point where he had a majority, but that he could not break down the Clark strength, which was said to be determined that Bryan should not win through a combination of any kind.

Should Clark and Wilson fail on the next two or three ballots it was predicted that there would be a turn to Representative Underwood, who had held his nominal vote from first to last. Underwood forces were watching for just such a contingency and claimed to be prepared to take full advantage of it.

Whether the Alabama candidate could win or not was the subject of much speculation, but outside of the delegates who had voted for him on twenty-six ballots there did not appear to be much enthusiasm.

Genuine attempts at compromise are likely to be made if Clark and Underwood should follow Wilson upon a high wave of votes and still fail to get the necessary two-thirds, but it was not expected that any of the "dark horse" candidates will stand much show until the three leaders in turn have tried and failed.

On the face of the last ballot cast Governor Wilson seemed to have a decided advantage over other candidates, having mounted steadily to 407% votes from 324 on the first ballot. His campaign managers, consequently, are doing their utmost to steer clear of the controversy between Clark and Bryan. They said that Wilson ought not to be made a party to such a quarrel.

Closes Year With Surplus.

Washington, July 1.—The federal government closed the fiscal year with a surplus of $22,000,000, according to estimates. This amount far exceeds the most sanguine expectations of Secretary MacVeagh, who months ago estimated that the surplus would be $10,280,000.

COMMONER ANSWERS CLARK STATEMENT

Nebraskan Says Missourian Has Sinned by Omission.

Baltimore, July 1.—William J. Bryan replied to the statement of Speaker Champ Clark demanding that the Nebraska prove or retract the general charge made in convention that the Clark forces had allied themselves with the great financial interests. In his statement Mr. Bryan said: "I have received notice by publication only. The only criticism I have made against Mr. Clark is not that he has acted wrongfully, but that he has failed to act. I may overestimate the importance of the presidential office, but I have felt that an aspirant for that office ought to manage his own campaign and not allow people to do things for him without his direct or specific authority."

Bryan Mentions Several Men for Nomination.

Baltimore, July 1.—"I see no reason why we should not conclude the convention with the nomination of both a president and a vice president," said W. J. Bryan. "The friends of the various candidates have fought out their differences and in their loyalty to the men of their choice have consumed more time than is usually devoted to balloting. There is every reason why the progressives should get together and select a ticket."

He suggested that if the convention could not agree upon either Governor Wilson of New Jersey or Speaker Clark of Missouri an available man to head the ticket might be found in a list which he furnished comprising the names of Senator Kern of Indiana, Senator Elect Ollie James of Kentucky, Senator O'Gorman of New York, Senator Culberson of Texas and Senator Rayner of Maryland.

JUST TO MEET HIS FRIENDS

Clark Gives His Reasons for Going to Baltimore.

Washington, July 1.—"There is no change in the situation that I can see," said Speaker Clark. "It is exactly as it was when the convention adjourned. I went over to Baltimore to see some of my friends because it was more convenient for me to go than for them to come here to see me. I have no intention of going over to Baltimore again."

"My friends tell me that this is the time for me to stay in the race," said Representative Oscar Underwood of Alabama. "I am relying on their judgment. I can see no change in the situation at this time. I contemplate no action which will change the situation before the convention meets."

In this way two of the leading candidates in the Democratic convention deadlock expressed the situation. Neither would make any extended statement.

CONFIDENT CLARK WILL WIN

Parker and Murphy Predict Nomination of Speaker.

Baltimore, July 1.—"Adjournment of the convention until Monday will prove of great advantage to the candidacy of Speaker Clark," said Alton B. Parker.

"I still believe Clark will be nominated," continued Parker. "There is no foundation for rumors that the New York delegation's purpose is to abandon Clark for Underwood, Marshall, Gaynor or another. I cannot conceive it possible that the delegation would swing to Wilson."

"Those are my views," said Charles F. Murphy when Judge Parker's statement was repeated to him.

WAIT UNTIL THE COUNT OF VOTES

Political Wiseacres Chary of Predictions For November.

THE BIG BALTIMORE BOOMS.

Crowds Limited by Lack of Hotel Accommodations—Doorkeepers in Name Only—Women Working in Behalf of Suffrage and Charity—The Need of Leather Lungs.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Baltimore, —[Special.]—There must be two parties, one radical and the other conservative. That is the way it has been with all governments where the people rule. Sometimes one party is radical and sometimes the other, but it always seems that the conservative party, recognizing that there are good things in the past, remains longest in control of the government.

The old Democratic party was conservative until a radical party arose more than fifty years ago and overthrew it. Then the radical Republican party became conservative and its rival the radical party. So it will be seen that the party which remains in power longest is that which is conservative. When the radical party gets in power it naturally tends to conservatism.

Guessing on November.

One can hear all sorts of guesses as to what will happen next November. There are more people in Baltimore with ideas about the next election than there were at Chicago. Curiously enough the general verdict after the Chicago convention was held was to the effect that neither man nominated there could be elected. A similar idea prevailed in Baltimore, but not among Democrats. There never was a Democratic convention from which partisanship did not go home convinced that the ticket stood a fair chance of winning.

Nonpartisan Judgment.

If there was such a thing as a nonpartisan judgment it would be that the result next November is in grave doubt. Men who came away from Chicago believing that it made little difference what the Democrats should do at Baltimore are now of the opinion that this will be a fight to the finish and that no one can say who will be the next president until the votes are counted next November.

But whatever happens it must be said that both the Chicago and the Baltimore conventions will go down to posterity as history makers.

Champ Clark's Managers.

Three former United States senators were the chief boomers for Champ Clark at the Democratic convention. They were Fred T. DuBois and Henry Heitfeld of Idaho and R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota. Both DuBois and Pettigrew were formerly Republicans, and Heitfeld was elected as a Populist to the senate. Pettigrew and DuBois were delegates to the Republican convention in 1896 and walked out of the convention when the gold plank was adopted. They have followed the fortunes of Mr. Bryan in every campaign since that time when the Nebraska man was a candidate. But they would not follow Bryan in his fight at Baltimore. They announced that they wanted Champ Clark and would do nothing to interfere with his chances.

Interviewing the Women.

Not only do more women attend national conventions than heretofore, but it has become a regular business for women to be interviewed as to whether they favor woman suffrage or are opposed to it. Another feature of the conventions was the "votes for women" distributors of literature in favor of their cause. Women also appeared before the committees on resolutions, but they could not convince the men who made the platforms that this was an auspicious time in which to put forward woman suffrage.

Charity Women at Work.

Women interested in various charities were prominent at both Baltimore and Chicago, selling articles for charity. Many of them at Baltimore tried to sell tickets for excursions and for concerts and entertainments to be given in Baltimore for charity. Most of the men said that Baltimore was getting all their money for hotels and meals and they had nothing for charity.

Disappearance of Crowds.

Probably there would have been a much larger attendance at the Democratic national convention if there had been more accommodations at Baltimore, but people could not get into the hotels, and there are not so many people in these days who are willing to take chances in all sorts of boarding houses for the purpose of simply making up a crowd. It was also noticed at the Republican convention that there were not as many people as formerly. Perhaps it is because crowds can no longer influence nominations.

Men of Voice Wanted.

With a convention hall holding 15,000 or 20,000 people it is useless for any man to attempt to talk unless he has a real foghorn voice or one of those clarion toned voices that will penetrate every part of the hall. He must talk to the people as well as to the delegates. They want to know what is going on just as much as the men who are doing the voting.

The first steamer on the Thames was the Marjory, in 1814. The Richmond followed her a year later.

EMPRESS OF GERMANY.

GERMAN EMPRESS IS ILL

Physicians Advise Complete Withdrawal From All Functions.

Berlin, July 1.—It is learned from an authoritative source in spite of all attempts at denial that the health of the empress is causing anxiety to her physicians.

The empress returned recently from Bad Nauheim, where she had been taking the cure, in such condition that the attending physicians advised complete withdrawal from all representative functions.

HILL STEPS OUT AS CHAIRMAN OF BOARD

Completes Thirty-three Years of Active Railroad.

St. Paul, July 1.—The retirement of James J. Hill from his position as chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railway was officially announced from the office of the company. The resignation of Mr. Hill was presented to the board of directors June 7 and unofficial reports of the change were circulated at the time, but until now the statement with which Mr. Hill accompanies his resignation was not made public. As reported unofficially some weeks ago, Louis W. Hill, who was recently succeeded by Carl R. Gray as president of the Great Northern, succeeds his father as chairman of the board of directors. James J. Hill will remain a member of the executive committee of the board.

With his retirement Mr. Hill completed thirty-three years of active railroad in the Northwest, beginning with his purchase of an interest in the St. Paul and Pacific, of which he was then made general manager, to the time of his resignation from the office which he has held for five years since he resigned the presidency of the Great Northern road. His statement to the board of directors gives a concise history of the development of the system, the purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific when the Dutch owners were trying to get rid of it, the extension of the main line to the coast and of branch lines into all parts of the Northwest, the purchase of interests in the Chicago, Burlington and the Colorado and Southern and a brief history of the financing of these projects. He merely touches upon the development of the country which has followed the development of the railroad system and in closing expresses the belief that the company is so safeguarded against the future that it can weather any ordinary storm and that its continued prosperity and usefulness is assured.

UNABLE TO GET TOGETHER

Mack Calls Conference of Candidates' Managers.

Baltimore, July 1.—National Chairman Mack called the representatives of the various candidates together with the purpose of ascertaining what candidates, if any, would withdraw and what dark horse possibly could be united on. It was understood that no representative of Governor Wilson's candidacy was present at this conference.

The deadlock was frankly discussed from every angle and the various leaders present disclosed their strategic positions with the plain purpose of convincing the others that his candidate was the logical choice.

THREE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Four Injured in Collision Between Auto and Train.

Kansas City, July 1.—Three persons were killed, four injured, one possibly fatally, near here when the automobile of G. W. Strope, a retired merchant, collided with a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul passenger train. Mrs. Strope is among the dead.

Others killed are Mrs. F. F. Ferguson, daughter of Strope, and her seven-year-old daughter Sharley.

TO BUILD NO MORE LINES

Soo Line President Serves Notice on Wisconsin.

St. Paul, July 1.—President Edmund Pennington of the Soo Line, whose company operates extensive mileage in Wisconsin, in the strongest statement that has yet emanated from any railroad president in the Northwest regarding conditions in the commonwealth that lies east of Minnesota said that his company would not build another mile of road in Wisconsin now, or at any future time, so far as could be foreseen.

Existing conditions in Wisconsin are such, he said, as to discourage capital seeking investment and he declared that as the result of a state of public mind due to the agitations of Wisconsin politicians that state is not progressing as are other Western states, but is going backward.

"DON'T FORGET TO REMIT"

Text of Many Messages Being Sent From Baltimore.

Baltimore, July 1.—Six days of the convention has just about exhausted the holiday spirit of the occasion and a general exodus of convention visitors, rooters, marching clubs and even delegates took place. The enthusiastic visitors who last Tuesday and Wednesday were having a "perfectly lovely" time dispersing their spending money and talking politics, settled down apathetically to the routine of the deadlock or hurried homeward with depleted purses.

The three year homestead bill, permitting entrymen on public lands to prove their claims in three instead of five years, allowing five months absence from a claim each year, and reducing the acreage on large claims from eighty to forty acres, has been signed by the president.

Golf balls valued at $6,000,000 are said to be lost each season by the lovers of that game. We have heard that money was sometimes lost at golf but had not supposed it was because the players lost the balls, and at that rate it is no game for a country editor to indulge in.

Several of the up-country papers not having heard of the change are still booming Congressman Lindbergh

ing of his strength with the people for that position while the gentleman is now a candidate for re-election as congressman. A man must be onto his job to keep up with the political procession these days.

A report is current that a chain of stores owned by a central company with buyers who who purchase goods for them in vast quantities are to replace the mail order houses now doing such an enormous share of the business of the country outside the big cities. There is some satisfaction in knowing that if this takes place local communities will get some benefit in return in the way of taxes, etc.

The editor of the Litchfield Review reports having eaten three slices of bread made from alfalfa and the effect was so beneficial that he was able to cut the grass on his own lawn. Figuring on the same basis if the gentleman's diet for a week was confined exclusively to alfalfa bread he would be able to cut all the lawns in his town and put up most of the hay for the farmers in that vicinity.

Paul F. Dehnelt is sending out blotters advertising his candidacy for congressman-at-large as a "Roosevelt Republican." The gentleman lives at Worthington where he publishes a newspaper, and evidently had his advertising matter printed before the result of the Chicago convention was announced. Many politicians and would-be office holders have been obliged to revise their literature, and many have been wise enough to wait and learn of results before "the hat was thrown." It is a wise man who knows what ticket will carry him to victory—and victory is what many of them seek regardless of ticket or party.

Sam Gordon had a whole lot of friends who do not just like his attitude in the circular letter he is sending out regarding the presidential campaign, and a man can be a little too vigorous, even though he feels that way at the time. The Daily Virginian in commenting on the matter says: "There are some who believe Sam has made a mistake as there is no certainty that Roosevelt will head a third party, and in case he doesn't Sam will be placed in a peculiar predicament with the supporters of Taft. There were thousands of Roosevelt supporters in Minnesota before the convention, but now that Taft has been selected as the nominee, many of this number feel it their duty to fall in line and support the president for re-election."

Rumors circulated Sunday afternoon and evening to the effect that a young man named Edwards had been drowned near Rice lake proved to be groundless. The report has been denied by every family of that name, by the Edwards living at Rice lake and by Mr. and Mrs. B. Edwards, of West Brainerd.

The Brainerd Speedwells defeated the South Long Lake nine Sunday afternoon at South Long lake by the score of 20 to 6. Batteries for the Speedwells were Butka and Thoe; for Long Lake, O. Erickson and Luelander.
The Speedwells play the same team at the Smith grounds here on the south side next Sunday.

The male chorus of 25 voices from Decorah, Iowa, under the leadership of Prof. Carlo A. Sperati that was announced to give a concert July 10th at the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, will not be able to appear here as in that event they could not get the benefit of the reduced railroad rates. This was a matter they had not looked up sufficiently in time, and hence the regrettable disappointment.

Mrs. E. M. Tillquist, a resident of Brainerd in its early days, passed away at the home of her daughter in the west and the remains were brought to Brainerd and given burial today, the funeral services being held from the Swedish Baptist church.
The deceased was a widow, her husband having died in Brainerd 20 years ago. Among those attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. E. O.
Land, of Mozart, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Tillquist and Mr. and Mrs.
Julius Tillquist, of St. Paul; Charles Tillquist, of Sparta, Wis.; Oscar Tillquist and his son, Eugene Tillquist, of Livingston, Mont. While here
the relatives visited Mr. and Mrs.

Brainerd Weather Bureau
Temperature taken by Theo.
Miller, Cooperative Observer

June 29, maximum temperature, 95 degrees.
June 30, maximum temperature, 85 degrees, minimum 60 degrees.
July 1, minimum temperature, 61 degrees.
The U. S. weather bureau forecast is: "Unsettled weather with probably showers tonight or Tuesday. Warmer northeast portion tonight. Cooler west portion tonight and Tuesday."

Statistics show that it takes a minute and a third to get telephone connection in Paris. A third of a minute seems a long while to wait but if the Paris average was adopted in Brainerd there would be some hollering.

Figures compiled for the northwest show that the record for June brides has been broken this year. Not only has the record been broken but the pocket books of some of the fathers of these June brides have been badly bent.

The Wadena Pioneer-Journal suggests to Congressman Lindbergh that he cut loose from the republican party and run as an independent or as a candidate on a third party ticket, and then adds: "He has our distinguished assurance that we will not support him anyway."

All you need is $50 with which to pay the filing fee in order to become a full-fledged candidate for governor. Neither the backing of friends nor a political pull is now necessary, but you will need some friends to vote for you if you would not be made a monkey of and pay $50 for the privilege.

The three year homestead bill, permitting entrymen on public lands to prove their claims in three instead of five years, allowing five months absence from a claim each year, and reducing the acreage on large claims from eighty to forty acres, has been signed by the president.

Golf balls valued at $6,000,000 are said to be lost each season by the lovers of that game. We have heard that money was sometimes lost at golf but had not supposed it was because the players lost the balls, and at that rate it is no game for a country editor to indulge in.

Several of the up-country papers not having heard of the change are still booming Congressman Lindbergh for the United States senate and touting of his strength with the people for that position while the gentleman is now a candidate for re-election as congressman. A man must be onto his job to keep up with the political procession these days.

A report is current that a chain of stores owned by a central company with buyers who will purchase goods for them in vast quantities are to replace the mail order houses now doing such an enormous share of the business of the country outside the big cities. There is some satisfaction in knowing that if this takes place local communities will get some benefit in return in the way of taxes, etc.

The editor of the Litchfield Review reports having eaten three slices of bread made from alfalfa and the effect was so beneficial that he was able to cut the grass on his own lawn. Figuring on the same basis if the gentleman's diet for a week was confined exclusively to alfalfa bread he would be able to cut all the lawns in his town and put up most of the hay for the farmers in that vicinity.

Paul F. Dehn is sending out blotters advertising his candidacy for congressman-at-large as a "Roosevelt Republican." The gentleman lives at Worthington where he publishes a newspaper, and evidently had his advertising matter printed before the result of the Chicago convention was announced. Many politicians and would-be office holders have been obliged to revise their literature, and many have been wise enough to wait and learn of results before "the hat was thrown." It is a wise man who knows what ticket will carry him to victory—and victory is what many of them seek regardless of ticket or party.

Sam Gordon had a whole lot of friends who do not just like his attitude in the circular letter he is sending out regarding the presidential campaign, and a man can be a little too vigorous, even though he feels that way at the time. The Daily Virginian in commenting on the matter says: "There are some who believe Sam has made a mistake as there is no certainty that Roosevelt will head a third party, and in case he doesn't Sam will be placed in a peculiar predicament with the supporters of Taft. There were thousands of Roosevelt supporters in Minnesota before the convention, but now that Taft has been selected as the nominee, many of this number feel it their duty to fall in line and support the president for re-election."

LOSES LIFE IN MISSISSIPPI

Wm. H. Lamb, Jr., Formerly of St. Paul, Drowned Sunday Morning Near Crow Wing Dam

SEIZED WITH CRAMP AND SANK

Sam English, in Attempting to Rescue Him, Is Nearly Drowned in Treacherous Current

William Henry Lamb, aged 22 and single, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Lamb, of St. Paul, was drowned Sunday morning at about nine o'clock in the Mississippi river, a short distance below the junction of the Crow Wing river. The young man had made Brainerd his home the last few months, being employed as a stenographer in the Minnesota & International railway company offices. He was a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Gemmell.

In company with Sam English, a brother clerk, and Basil Burrell the party took the Burrell launch Saturday evening and went down the Mississippi to visit Basil's father, L. W. Burrell, who is employed as blacksmith at the Crow Wing dam. The boat was anchored near the junction. The party stayed at the dam over night and the next morning, after breakfast, started out for Brainerd with Mr. Burrell. They walked the two miles from the dam to the junction and while Mr. Burrell busied himself with the launch, the boys went in swimming.

The river is about as broad at that point as it is near the hospital bridge. Lamb took to the water about 60 feet north of English. He had been swimming but a short distance when he cried for help. English leaped into the river as Lamb floated by and caught him by the arm. He could not make much progress swimming in that manner and so he seized him by the hair.

Both went down and while under water English was paddling towards shore with Lamb. They came to the surface and English cried for help. The keys of the launch were in their clothes up stream and Mr. Burrell seized an iron bar and smashed the lock of the chain and came to the rescue with the launch.

English and Lamb became separated and Burrell just managed to reach English as he came up the third time, still gripping in his hands some of the hair of Lamb's head. Lamb had disappeared and Mr. Burrell and his son spent two hours getting the water out of English's lungs and resuscitating him.

Relatives in Brainerd were notified and W. H. Gemmell, Chief of Police George A. Ridley, Deputy Game Warden Onstine, A. B. Anderson and others spent all day Sunday and Monday searching for the body. Up to noon the body had not been found. There is quite a current where the unfortunate young man was drowned and it is believed he may have drifted to an eddy in the river.

The deceased was born in St. Paul May 31, 1891. He was reared in that city and graduated from the St. Paul high school. He took a business course at the Nicolet college and came to Brainerd. He was a quiet, unassuming, young man and readily made friends. Dr. John Wright, the rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in St. Paul, always entertained the highest regard for the deceased and spoke of him as being clean, bright and honest. In his letter of recommendation Dr. Wright said: "He is in every sense a splendid young man and I have great faith in him, growing out of the many years I have known him. Those who secure his services will be fortunate."

He was a member of this congregation and also of St. Andrew's society of the Episcopal church. He had planned to spend his Fourth of July vacation with his parents at their home, 69 Ashland avenue, after which all were to return to Brainerd and spend several weeks at the lakes with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gemmell.

Mr. Lamb, Sr., and an aunt, Mrs. W. P. Jewett, arrived last night from St. Paul and are awaiting the finding of the remains. The body will be taken to St. Paul for burial. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family and relatives in their sad affliction.

Up to the time of going to press the body of the late William H. Lamb, still remains unrecovered from the Mississippi.

COMMENDS PATTERSON SHOWS

Hon. E. C. Rice, Mayor of Coffeyville, Kansas, Speaks in Highest Terms of the Shows

That the Greatest Patterson Shows which appear in Brainerd July 8 to 13 are good shows and enjoy a high class reputation for good order and splendid attractions is evidenced by the following letter from Mayor Rice, of Coffeyville, Kansas.

In a letter addressed to James Patterson, the manager of the Patterson shows, Mayor Rice says: "I wish to compliment you on the good order and decorum maintained by your shows during the week you have spent in our city. I must say in justice to the carnival that it is the best of its character that has ever visited our city."

"Many of the attractions are simply of the highest order, and I only hear words of praise from all who have visited the shows."

"The people whom you have with you are well-behaved and in fact the show is clean and refined in all particulars, and no man need be ashamed to take his wife and family to any of the Patterson shows. I can cheerfully recommend your shows to the public at large."

CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS

Special to Dispatch:

Baltimore, July 1, 12:30 P. M.—

The convention opened at 11:03 and began to ballot. John B. Stanchfield, of New York, rising to explain his vote creates a tremendous stir by attacking Bryan. He says the vote of New York is vital to democratic success, and defends the democratic record of the state. The delegation is the most representative that ever came from the state to a national convention, and the manhood of every one of the ninety has been impugned and insulted on the convention floor.

He calls Bryan a "Money grabbing, office seeking, publicity hunting marplot from Nebraska," and says if the convention is to expel the richest and most powerful delegate, it should be the gentleman from Nebraska. The twenty-seventh ballot was Clark 469, Wilson 406½, Underwood 112, Harmon 29, Bryan 1, Marshall 30, Foss 38. New York's vote of ninety for Clark was challenged by Delegate Edson and roll call ordered. Clark gets 78, Wilson 9, Underwood 2. The chairman gave ninety to Clark under the unit rule.

1:55 P. M.—Twenty-eighth ballot, Clark 468½, Wilson 437½, Underwood 121½, Harmon 29, Kern 1, Bryan 1, Marshall is out. Wild cheering when Indiana dropped Marshall on this ballot and cast 29 votes for Wilson, one for Kern. Bryan made no reply to the Stanchfield attack. Delegate Knox of Alabama, an Underwood man, offered harmony resolutions, which were referred to the resolutions committee. Roger Sullivan says Illinois' fifty-eight is likely to go to Wilson in the course of the day.

1:51 P. M.—Twenty ninth ballot, Clark 468½, Wilson 436, Harmon 29, Underwood 112, Kern 4.

2:00 P. M.—Thirtieth ballot W. J. son 460, Clark 455, Underwood 121½, Foss 30, Harmon 19, Kern 2.

Bryan said: "I have no intention of replying to Mr. Stanchfield, most of the commendation that is paid me comes from my enemies." On thirtieth ballot Wilson gains twelve votes from Clark in Iowa on poll of delegates. Delegates and galleries yelled and applauded. Wilson passes Clark.

31st ballot—Wilson 475½, Clark 446½, Underwood 114½, Foss 30, Harmon 17, Kern 2.

32nd ballot—Wilson 478½, Clark 445½, Underwood 119½, Foss 28, Harmon 14, Bryan 2.

BRAINERD 1, ROYALTON 6

Down River Team is Superior to Locals in Fielding and Hitting. Scoring 11 Hits

COOK STRIKES OUT 12 MEN

Rogers Plays a Star Game on Second Base and Makes the Only Run for Brainerd

Brilliant support enabled Dreshko to pitch the Royalton nine to a victory over Brainerd Sunday afternoon which nearly meant a shut out for the locals, the score being 6 to 1.

Cook, of Brainerd, struck out 12 and Dreshko 10. Rogers, who for the first time played second base, was the bright particular star, fielding well and bringing in Brainerd's only run. Cook was touched up for 11 hits, which poor fielding in some instances developed into runs.

In the first inning the whole Royalton team came to bat with the exception of the ninth man. Three runs were scored and four hits made. In Brainerd's turn to bat Erickson and Rogers flew out. Callan rapped out a hot liner and stole second. Cooks struck out.

In the second Cook struck out two men and Hughes went out on first. For Brainerd Templeton was put out at first, Kalland struck out and Murphy flew out.

The third would have been short of runs for Royalton, but Sheffield dropped a fly which enabled Dreshko to score later. With one out Royalton attempted to advance men simultaneously, one from first to second and one from third to home. Rogers, on second, ran down the runner close to first and before the man on third could slide home he had pitched to Roderick who put him out on home plate.

Brainerd's lone run was made in the fourth when Rogers hit to right field. Callan was put out at first. Cook drew a pass to first, and taking a chance, later was signalled to make home, but was caught making the steal. Templeton struck out.

In the fifth and eighth Royalton put a run each inning across the plate, the last being a home run by Kinkle. In the ninth Rogers chased after Dreshko's long hit, turned about and faced the ball and caught it. Cook fielded a ball and ran down the runner before he got to first.

The day was very warm and Manager Callan was urging the locals to display more "pep". If "pep" wins the game, then it's "pep" that the fans want and a whole lot of it.

Benton County 1, St. Cloud 0

St. Cloud, Minn., June 30—In one of the best games ever seen on the local grounds, the Benton county team won from the St. Cloud team today by the score of 1 to 0 in the eleventh inning. The winning run was the result of a three bagger by Murn, who scored when he was out on the back by a ball thrown by Kennedy who was relaying the ball from centerfield. The ball went into the crowd and Murn went home with the only score of the game.

The game was one of the tightest pitchers battles that has ever been staged on the local lot. Rube Waddell was on the hill for the locals and to state that the Rube was right would be putting the matter very lightly. On the other hand, Jake Thielman pitched one of the best games of his career for the visitors. Rube led in the strike out and hit honors, but the game put up by Jake was airtight in nearly every inning.

The game should not have gone into the extra innings had not St. Cloud got a little the worst of the breaks. In the fourth inning a fine chance to score was presented but the tally was lacking. Newgard, the first man up, hit a line drive over first that Umpire Boutin called a foul, but a number of the fans were of the opinion that the ump had missed this one. Several of the Benton county players seemed to think the same way. Newgard was called back and finally struck out. Kinkle followed with a single and stole second and third. Thielman hit to the pitchers box and Kinkle should have scored, for Jake Thielman dropped the ball.

So light running that your "youngest" can now mow the lawn without help.

KEEN KUTTER Mowers are fast cutting and easy running because of the double gear and the fine ball bearings. A KEEN KUTTER will last longer than any mower on the market and is easily kept keen and sharp. To sharpen, merely reverse the blades and they sharpen themselves. A cheap mower will cost more in the end on account of repairs, will not do the work properly and will require twice as much labor.

LOSES LIFE IN MISSISSIPPI

Wm. H. Lamb, Jr., Formerly of St. Paul, Drowned Sunday Morning Near Crow Wing Dam

SEIZED WITH CRAMP AND SANK

Sam English, in Attempting to Rescue Him, Is Nearly Drowned in Treacherous Current

William Henry Lamb, aged 22 and single, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Lamb, of St. Paul, was drowned Sunday morning at about nine o'clock in the Mississippi river, a short distance below the junction of the Crow Wing river. The young man had made Brainerd his home the last few months, being employed as a stenographer in the Minnesota & International railway company offices. He was a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Gemmell.

In company with Sam English, a brother clerk, and Basil Burrell the party took the Burrell launch Saturday evening and went down the Mississippi to visit Basil's father, L. W. Burrell, who is employed as blacksmith at the Crow Wing dam. The boat was anchored near the junction. The party stayed at the dam over night and the next morning, after breakfast, started out for Brainerd with Mr. Burrell. They walked the two miles from the dam to the junction and while Mr. Burrell busied himself with the launch, the boys went in swimming.

The river is about as broad at that point as it is near the hospital bridge. Lamb took to the water about 60 feet north of English. He had been swimming but a short distance when he cried for help. English leaped into the river as Lamb floated by and caught him by the arm. He could not make much progress swimming in that manner and so he seized him by the hair.

Both went down and while under water English was paddling towards shore with Lamb. They came to the surface and English cried for help. The keys of the launch were in their clothes up stream and Mr. Burrell seized an iron bar and smashed the lock of the chain and came to the rescue with the launch.

English and Lamb became separated and Burrell just managed to reach English as he came up the third time, still gripping in his hands some of the hair of Lamb's head. Lamb had disappeared and Mr. Burrell and his son spent two hours getting the water out of English's lungs and resuscitating him.

Relatives in Brainerd were notified and W. H. Gemmell, Chief of Police George A. Ridley, Deputy Game Warden Onstine, A. B. Anderson and others spent all day Sunday and Monday searching for the body. Up to noon the body had not been found. There is quite a current where the unfortunate young man was drowned and it is believed he may have drifted to an eddy in the river.

The deceased was born in St. Paul May 31, 1891. He was reared in that city and graduated from the St. Paul high school. He took a business course at the Nicolet college and came to Brainerd. He was a quiet, unassuming, young man and readily made friends. Dr. John Wright, the rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in St. Paul, always entertained the highest regard for the deceased and spoke of him as being clean, bright and honest. In his letter of recommendation Dr. Wright said: "He is in every sense a splendid young man and I have great faith in him, growing out of the many years I have known him. Those who secure his services will be fortunate."

He was a member of this congregation and also of St. Andrew's society of the Episcopal church. He had planned to spend his Fourth of July vacation with his parents at their home, 69 Ashland avenue, after which all were to return to Brainerd and spend several weeks at the lakes with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gemmell.

Mr. Lamb, Sr., and an aunt, Mrs. W. P. Jewett, arrived last night from St. Paul and are awaiting the finding of the remains. The body will be taken to St. Paul for burial. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family and relatives in their sad affliction.

Up to the time of going to press the body of the late William H. Lamb, still remains unrecovered from the Mississippi.

The winning run was the result of a three bagger by Murn, who scored when he was out on the back by a ball thrown by Kennedy who was relaying the ball from centerfield. The ball went into the crowd and Murn went home with the only score of the game.

The game was one of the tightest pitchers battles that has ever been staged on the local lot. Rube Waddell was on the hill for the locals and to state that the Rube was right would be putting the matter very lightly. On the other hand, Jake Thielman pitched one of the best games of his career for the visitors. Rube led in the strike out and hit honors, but the game put up by Jake was airtight in nearly every inning.

The game should not have gone into the extra innings had not St. Cloud got a little the worst of the breaks. In the fourth inning a fine chance to score was presented but the tally was lacking. Newgard, the first man up, hit a line drive over first that Umpire Boutin called a foul, but a number of the fans were of the opinion that the ump had missed this one. Several of the Benton county players seemed to think the same way. Newgard was called back and finally struck out. Kinkle followed with a single and stole second and third. Thielman hit to the pitchers box and Kinkle should have scored, for Jake Thielman dropped the ball.

SEVEN FOOT AUGUST

August Krause, a Regular "Whale" is With the Great Patterson Show Here Next Week

With the great Patterson Shows, which exhibit here July 8 to 13, is an exceedingly tall man, who is a native of Centerville, Iowa. He is the tallest man Iowa ever produced. August Krause is his name and his father was a German farmer who settled on a homestead two miles east of Centerville in 1852. On this homestead in 1865 young August, the tall, was born. He is 7 feet 7 inches in height and weighs 217 pounds. His entire wearing apparel has to be made to order, and it costs him ten dollars more to have a suit made than the average size mortal. Even his hose have to be made to order and he has to buy six dozen socks at a time. The only thing August can buy ready made is the collar that he sports when dressed in his Sunday-go-to-meetin' clothes.

August has been in the circus business for the last fifteen years, and in the course of his wanderings has visited about every civilized country on the face of the globe. Despite his years of travel and the fact that many maidens in different lands have been smitten with his inherent charms, August is still heart whole but confesses to a longing for a home where he can put his eight feet of legs under his own mahogany. "If I can find a girl of my own size," says August, "I will marry her on the spot."

August would make a fine matrimonial catch. It is true that he has to sleep catatonic, but that is offset by the fact that he has a perfectly normal appetite and is quite domesticated in his tastes. A philanthropic newspaper man in Pennsylvania once wrote a "wife wanted" advertisement for August, setting forth his longitudes and other attainments in such alluring language that dozens of maidens eager to wed responded, some from far away Scotland, but August avows that his heart and hand are still free, though in a spasm of confidence he admitted that he had once gone through with a stage marriage, becoming very much frigid when told that such marriages are looked upon as binding by some courts. However, August is willing to take a chance on the law if he can find his size in the other sex.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of Nineteen Hundred and Six and 41-100 Dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Beatrice Hastings Barber and Frank A. Barber, her husband, Mortgagors, to Richard Stedman Patrick, Mortgagee, bearing date the 6th day of April, 1911, and with a power of sale therein contained, duly registered in the office of the Registrar of Titles in and for the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, on the 13th day of April 1911, at 11 o'clock A. M., in Book (Vol. 1) of Certificates of Title, on page 119, Certificate of Title, No. 119, and no action or process having been instituted at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said Mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, Notice is Hereby Given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said Mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said Mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said Mortgage, viz:

The undivided one-fourteenth (1-14th) of all that tract or parcel of land lying and being in the county of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, described as follows, to-wit:

North half of Northwest Quarter of Southeast Quarter (N½ NW¼ SE¼); North half of South half of Northwest Quarter of Southeast Quarter (N½ S½ NW¼ SE¼); and North half of South half of West quarter (N½ SW¼); all of Section Twenty-seven (27), Township Forty-five (45) North, Range Thirty (30) East of the Fourth Principal Meridian, containing 110 acres of land more or less, according to the government survey thereof, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Crow Wing county at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Brainerd in said county and state, on the 7th day of August, 1912, at 10 o'clock A. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Nineteen Hundred and Six and 41-100 Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, if any, on said premises, and seventy-five Dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said Mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

TRINITY'S ONLY BIBLE PROP A FORGERY.

Interpolated Parts Expunged In Revised Version Bible.

Pastor Russell, in Remarkable Discourse, Points Out That After All, the Spurious Words Really Make Nonsense—Directs Attention to the Scriptures.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Syracuse, N. Y., June 30.—In one of Pastor Russell's discourses here today he spoke from this text: "To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by Him."—I Corinthians viii. 6.

Pastor Russell declared that for centuries Christians have been overlooking the real doctrine of the Trinity, set forth in the Bible, and have been perplexing their minds in an endeavor to believe and understand the mysterious theory of the creeds on the subject, which so persistently ignores the laws of mathematics, by declaring that three ones are one; or at times varying the declaration and asserting that one is three.

Any one questioning this fabulous statement, even to the extent of asking an explanation, was branded a heretic and assured that the matter is a mystery which cannot be understood, but that if denied the penalty would be eternal torture; and in numerous instances zealous persons had anticipated the torture by burning the inquirer at the stake, as, for instance, was done by our good brother John Calvin to Servetus.

Doctrine of Trinity Traced. There is no unreasonable mystery connected with the doctrine of the Trinity as presented in the Bible, said Pastor Russell. On the contrary, it is very simple, very reasonable, and very honoring to God the Father, Jesus the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

The Pastor traced the doctrine of the Trinity, as presented in the creeds, to its source. It was not the teachings of Jesus and the inspired Apostles, and surely not the belief of the Israelites, and those who for more than four thousand years had been God's people before Jesus' day. After the death of the Apostles, the Bishops erroneously claimed to be their successors vested with Apostolic authority, and these formulated the creeds with their various inconsistencies and Bible contradictions.

The Trinity of the creeds was introduced to offset the agnostic influences of the Greeks, who became interested in Christianity as a philosophy, but who denied its teachings respecting the prehuman existence of Jesus, the necessity for His death as a sin-atone-ment, and the doctrine of the resurrection.

In proportion as the Grecians denied many Christians would combat their theory, and they advanced claim after claim until they reached the climax represented in our creeds of declaring that Jesus was His own Father and His own Son at the same time, that one God, equal in power and glory, prayed to the other part of Himself with strong cryings and tears to be delivered from the power of the tomb, was heard and was raised from the dead by the power of the other part of Himself.

Indeed, said the Pastor, some have carried the matter so far as to claim that when Jesus died the world was for three days without a God, that He then raised Himself from the dead. Others, considering this an unreasonable view, claimed that Jesus never really died, but merely pretended to die—that all of the experiences of the cross were a mere farce, a pantomime, performed for the effect upon the people—that merely the body of Jesus died after crying, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" and that the real Jesus, the real God, stepped out and watched the proceedings and con- vinced at the deception, including the further deception respecting the resurrection from the dead.

All of this must be abominable to the Father. All Christians are perplexed with this man-made mystery. Now, as Bible students are waking and are studying the Bible, they find that its teachings are very different from that of the creeds, that it is very real, very logical, very beautiful, very harmonious.

Trinity Supported by Forgery.

Before we come to the examination of the Bible's testimony respecting the Trinity, I remind you that the word "trinity" does not occur in the English Bible from Genesis to Revelation, and that no passage approximating such teaching is found there, except one, and that one is an interpolation, as all scholars, including Trinitarians, admit. The Revised Version expunges the additions (evidently added about the seventh century), because they are not found in any manuscripts of earlier date.

The spurious passage is found in St. John's first Epistle, 5:7. Those sufficiently interested will read the passage in its proper form in the Revised Version, and we ask them to note that the additional words of the forgery, really make nonsense, in that they tell us that the Father and the Son

Of Gray's "Elegy" a contemporary reviewer wrote: "The excellence of this little piece amply compensates for its lack of quantity." That and nothing more. Of "In Memoriam" a contemporary estimate was that its "simple but touching verses" were evidently inspired by "the full heart of the widow of a military man."

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., - BOSTON, MASS.

Brief Criticisms.

BARROWS

The new mining town on the Cuyuna range, offers splendid opportunities for investment and for the establishment of business in various lines. This town is located in the richest part of the range, adjoining the Barrows mine, which will ship ore this season, and where a large force of men is now employed in putting down the third shaft, two being already completed. A number of other mines adjacent to the townsite will be opened up, making Barrows one of the greatest mining centers on the range. Streets are graded, cement sidewalks in, and buildings are going up rapidly. Lots are now offered at from $150 to $400 on the partial payment plan. Buy now while you can buy at the first offered price; get located in a live new town and prosper with the development of the country.

A few years ago lots that were sold in Hibbing, Virginia and Chisholm at the prices we are now asking are worth today several thousand dollars. For further information apply to
